Of these, sixteen in each class received ten points each for making teams, while six freshmen, eight sophomores, four juniors, and five seniors earned three points each for making their class squads. Maggie Bell, captain and manager of the 1920 champion team, received fourteen points for hockey. The members of the senior team were given two extra points for winning the inter-class championship. Class managers received two points also for their work in this position.

BETTER ONCE FOR

THE SHOT A MILE

Brutus Hamilton, greatest all-around athlete in America, failed to hold a world record that he set at his friends have heard about. While on board the ship that carried the American athletes to the Olympic games, Hamilton practiced each day with Pat McDonald, the great New York professional, with the weights.

One day when Hamilton had heaved the shot, the ship lurched and the ball, instead of falling on the deck, sailed overboard. The shot fell 5000 feet in the bottom of the ocean. McDonald and Hamilton claim that this was a new distance record for putting the shot.

JESUS PINN FALLEY

HOPES ON BASKETBALL

News comes from Ames that the Cyclones, after a somewhat doubtful football season, have turned their eyes to basketball as the means of securing a valley title this year. Already Coach Maurice Kent has started hard practice and has thinned the varsity squad down to sixteen men.

CAPTAIN HARRY SHEPHERD

PINKY

Stacy, M. A. Boyd, Bill Paige Porter, Alton and Houghton mark the forward material that has been sifted from the thirty or forty who first reported. Kent has selected lines, Merriam and Boyle from the limited center material. Several veterans will handle the guard positions. Willmack, Currie and White have previously received a letter in basketball and will be added to by the return of Woodward, a former varsity man who secured his letter three years ago.

Paige and Boyd have been the outstanding stars to date and outside of Captain Shepherd were the main scoring units last season. The Iowa State officials are endeavoring to secure games with smaller colleges before the regular season opens. There is a Valley ruling which prohibits this, but they hope it will be repealed in the near future.

CYCLOPS WILL LOSE

EIGHT KANSAS MEN

The athletic team at Ames recently awarded nineteen "A"s to members of the Cyclone football squad. This is the largest number that has been given out for years. The cyclones of material and frequent substitutions account for them.

Eight of the first string men were given letters for the first year of their careers. Captain Boyd Allen, Young, S. N. White, Bach, Vanderhoef and Hibbs will be greatly missed when the practice starts next fall. Evans and Bodwell also will not appear among the 1921 Cyclone constants.

SEES NO OBJECTION

TO THE WORD "PIKERS"

Referring to an article which appeared in the sport columns of the Evening Missouriian recently, commenting on the fact that Washington University students objected to the nickname "Pikers," the Oklahoma Daily says:

"According to the Columbia Evening Missouriian the students at Washington University are objecting to being called Pikers. What's in a name? After that first ball at St. Louis the Senators couldn't see any connection. Even when the battle ended 24 to 14 no one in Southern land has been heard to connect the offensive word piker to the game warriors of the St. Louis City."

The Oklahoma Daily is right. As we have said before the name "Pikers" has never been applied to the St. Louis institution in a derogatory sense and any where you may appear and answer or otherwise defend such action; otherwise plaintiff's petition will be taken as confessed and judgment rendered accordingly.

TRADE STUDENT CONTINUE WORK

Most Graduates of Vocational Courses in Columbia High Go to University.

That vocational training as carried on in Columbia High School has been successful is the opinion of Miss Sadie Stein, acting principal. This year there are classes in bookkeeping, typewriting, shorthand, penmanship, domestic science and manual training. The students are showing more interest in these studies each semester. Manual training was not taught for several years in Columbia High School until this year, when the work was taken up again. The class in penmanship is especially for the freshmen.

These courses with the exception of shorthand, typewriting and bookkeeping are not primarily for the purpose of fitting the student for a position as soon as he is graduated from high school but rather to increase his general knowledge. When asked if she thought there was a large opportunity for high schools to serve the students by fitting them for positions, Miss Stein said:

"I think that there are great possibilities along this line but not in Columbia where the situation is different from that in most places. Here where the University is the center of so much interest, the students look forward to continuing their school work instead of securing positions. Out of the eight students who received certificates in stenographic penmanship, last spring, only one has taken a permanent, full-time position. The others are working part of the time and helping in this way to pay their expenses through the University."

W. L. Oliver thinks that the idea of training students along one certain line has been carried too far in the past few years. Students today need more work along informational lines rather than specialized courses. Too many students he feels are very ignorant of the most common things.

CLUB IN DRESS REHEARSAL

"Plots and Playwrights" will be Presented Wednesday.

Dress rehearsal for "Plots and Playwrights" will be held in the University Auditorium at 7 o'clock this evening for the public performance at 8:15 Wednesday evening.

The three slice-of-life dramas in the first part of the play are being worked out to make them realistic by Mrs. E. R. Clark, coach, and the student actors, members of the University Dramatic Club. This is in strong contrast to the second part of the piece where a robbery, a murder and several love affairs are brought to a thrilling climax. The same actors are in both parts.

Prof. H. F. Major Says Attention at This Time Saves Trees.

Prof. Horace F. Major, of the horticultural department, has begun his annual doctoring of sick trees on the University campus. All trees which cannot be cured have been marked by Professor Major, and will soon be cut down. Mr. Major says that during this season many sick trees, if neglected, will die.
